Energizer - Modern Slavery Act Transparency Statement

OVERVIEW

At Energizer we do the right thing to deliver results. We believe that how we do business is just as important as the business we do - no result is ever worth compromising our integrity. We are committed to living our values and expect the highest levels of integrity from our suppliers and partners. We strive to manufacture our products responsibly while upholding our values and abiding by the laws of the countries in which we operate. We are committed to taking all reasonably practicable steps to ensure that slavery and human trafficking are not present either in our business nor in our supply chains. As part of that commitment, we provide this statement for the financial year ending September 30, 2021, in accordance with the California Transparency in Supply Chains Act, the UK Modern Slavery Act 2015, and the Australia Modern Slavery Act 2018.

ABOUT ENERGIZER

Energizer Holdings, Inc. (Energizer), through its operating subsidiaries, is one of the world's largest manufacturers, marketers and distributors of household batteries, specialty batteries and lighting products, and a leading designer and marketer of automotive fragrance and appearance products. Its brand names, Energizer® and Eveready®, have worldwide recognition for innovation, quality, and dependability, and are marketed and sold around the world.

In 2019, Energizer acquired Spectrum Brands Holdings, Inc. global battery, lighting and portable power business as well as their global auto care business, including Armor All®, STP®, and A/C PRO® brands.

Energizer operates as an independent, publicly traded company on the New York Stock Exchange, trading under the symbol "ENR."

Energizer Holdings has operations in more than 40 locations and distribution in more than 140 countries. The company employs 6,500 colleagues.

OUR ACTIONS

Energizer is taking the following actions to continue promoting ethical business practices and policies to protect workers from being abused and exploited:

- Requiring all our suppliers to complete and sign a self-assessment / certification at the time of purchase order placement to clearly communicate our expectations to our suppliers. We reserve the right to terminate our relationship with a supplier if issues of noncompliance with our policies are discovered and/or noncompliance is not addressed in a timely manner.
- Confirming any key suppliers' compliance with standards for human trafficking and forced labor through one or more of the following measures: (i) a supplier's declaration of compliance; (ii) an inspection by Energizer personnel; or (iii) an independent third-party audit
- Requiring our own manufacturing facilities and our third-party manufacturers to commit to the following as detailed in the Supplier Code of Conduct:

1. Workers employed on the basis of their ability. Discrimination is not tolerated
 2. Forced labor of any kind shall not be used
 3. Workers must meet applicable age requirements. Child labor shall not be employed
 4. Working hours are in compliance with applicable laws
 5. Wages & benefits are in compliance with applicable laws
 6. Freedom of association is respected
 7. Safe and healthy work environment is provided
 8. No physical or psychological coercion is allowed
- Employing auditing organizations, such as Intertek and SGS, to monitor compliance across our operations and those of our suppliers
 - Conducting trainings on modern slavery risk, increasing the number of people trained on anti-modern slavery principles
 - Offering the Energizer HelpLine which allows Energizer colleagues and external partners to ask questions or raise concerns via phone or web. Users of the Energizer HelpLine can also seek guidance about how to deal with potential violations and concerns. Managed by an independent third party, reporters can choose to provide their contact information or remain anonymous. Energizer does not tolerate retaliation against anyone who raises a good faith concern or who participates in the review of a concern.

OUR COMMITMENT

We are committed to taking all reasonably practicable steps to ensure that slavery and human trafficking are not present either in our business nor in our supply chains. We are committed to working closely with our suppliers to ensure that slavery and human trafficking risks are identified and managed proactively.

We will continue to identify which of our business locations and functions are most likely to interact with higher risk entities. Doing so will help us to guide our review of relevant policies, procedures, and training to ensure we are working effectively to address any identified instances of slavery and human trafficking.
